

Craiceann 2010

The Craiceann Summerschool 2010 takes place from 21st to 25th June 2010

This is the tenth anniversary event and we are excited to announce this years participants.

There are two new teachers in 2010: Téada's Tristan Rosenstock and Uiscedwr's Cormac Byrne! Add Junior Davey, Jim Higgins, Siobhan O'Donnell, Stiofan O'Brion and Rolf Wagels and you will see that this years teachers board again covers a variety of styles and approaches in bodhrán playing.

We will have two great concerts one featuring one of Ireland leading trad bands Téada who were just awarded best 'Best Young Irish Traditional Act' at the 'Ireland's Music Awards'. The other concert will be by Éalú and guests, people who have been to Craiceann before will recognize most of the musicians in this upcoming new and exciting band, since Ryan Murphy, Cillian King and Dermot Sheedy are regular visitors to Inisheer during Craiceann. Also, workshops will take place during the day between classes. One of the lecturers will be Liam O'Maonlai of Hothouse Flowers fame talking about different aspects of Irish Trad Music. As well as being a multi-instrumentalist and singer he is a past Irish bodhran champion and he may also teach at this years event!
